Hi Steve -

I hate to bother you on your trip, but if you happened to be checking mail, a few quick things:

1. We found a potential support to Java hire. He has some good experience - not enough to hire as a full blown developer, but enough that we'd want to offer him a little more than the level one salary. [REDACTED]

2. [REDACTED]

Thanks Steve -

We can talk more when you get back, but I wanted to at least see if you were comfortable with me getting these balls rolling.

We miss you!

Lori
